

Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Don and Pat Yungolas heeded the call and came to serve the South Dakota Conference of the United Church of Christ in August of 1986; and,

WHEREAS, Don and Pat have willingly, lovingly, and unselfishly contributed to the work of the Conference during this interim period; and,

WHEREAS, Don and Pat have shared their talents through the speaking of the Word, the singing of the Word, and the living out of the Word in their leadership roles with the South Dakota Conference; and,

WHEREAS, May 2 will be the day when the South Dakota Conference will acknowledge and honor the gifts Don and Pat have given to them, and a day which the Conference will celebrate with joy and thanksgiving for having had the opportunity to know these two special servants of our Lord; and,

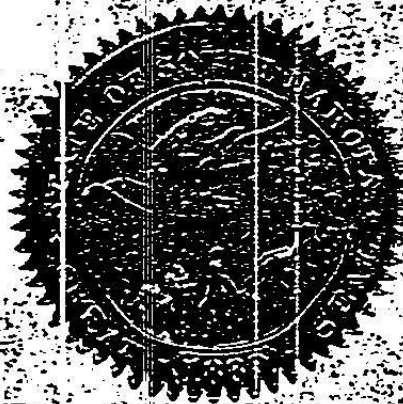

WHEREAS, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognize and commemorate the memorable service these two people have contributed to the life of the Church in South Dakota this past year;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 2, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I join with the South Dakota Conference of the United Church of Christ in wishing Don and Pat continued good health and happiness as they continue in their lives of ministry to God's people. South Dakota is richer because you have become "one of us."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Second Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

ATTEST:

James H. Magelton
JAMES H. MAGELTON, SECRETARY OF STATE
